Frances and James Maguire
 James and Frances made a gift to establish the Stephen J. Schuster, M.D., Lymphoma Research Fund to support his groundbreaking immunotherapy research. The Maguire Lymphoma Research Fund will also expedite the flow of individualized treatments from "bench to bedside," and ideally improve outcomes for lymphoma patients.

Elaine and Melvin Merians
 Melvin and Elaine have made a generous gift to create a named endowed assistant professorship in the Department of Radiation Oncology in honor of Elaine's mother. The Helene Blum Assistant Professorship will be awarded to an expert clinician and clinical investigator of sarcoma, breast and other cancers while perpetually honoring the legacy of Helene Blum and the Merians family.

Leslie Anne Miller and Richard Worley
 In addition to gifts to the Urology professorship and the Perelman Center for Advanced Medicine, Richard and Leslie Anne made a leadership gift to the John H. Glick, M.D. Director's Professorship.

Warren 'Pete' V. Musser
 Pete generously supported the Perelman Center for Advanced Medicine, which will expand and enrich our already exemplary patient care programs. In addition, Pete enriched our urologic cancer program with a gift in honor of Alan Wein, M.D., to support the first endowed professorship in the Division of Urology.

Lorraine and David Popowich
 With a leadership gift made up of direct and retirement legacy funds, David and Lorraine named the David and Lorraine Popowich Surgical Oncology Center in the new Perelman Center for Advanced Medicine. David and Lorraine are also members of the Director's Leadership Council.

Diane Raynes
 Diane, her late husband Arthur, and their family have been very generous to different initiatives at the Abramson Cancer Center, including the construction of the Perelman Center for Advanced Medicine. Their support and Arthur's legacy at the Abramson Cancer Center will not be forgotten.

DONATING ANONYMOUSLY

Some friends of the Abramson Cancer Center wish to remain anonymous. Recently, three such donors each made leadership commitments to cancer research and patient care, including the Perelman Center for Advanced Medicine – the new Abramson Cancer Center building.

Linda and Paul Richardson
Paul and Linda made a gift to establish the Linda and Paul Richardson Breast Cancer Innovative Research Fund. The Richardson Research Fund will support innovative pilot projects of junior faculty members to help advance breast cancer research efforts.

Beverly Rhodes
In honor of her late husband Arthur Rhodes, Beverly established the Art Rhodes Fund for Leukemia Research. The Art Rhodes Fund specifically supports Dr. Martin Carroll's promising research on T Cell Prolymphocytic Leukemia at the Abramson Cancer Center.

Sean Rooney and Family
In memory of his wife Kelly and the care she received at Penn, Sean made a significant gift to establish the Kelly Rooney Breast Cancer Research Fund. The Kelly Rooney Research Fund will support breast cancer genetics research in an effort to spare future generations of women from this disease.

Lyn and George Ross
George and Lyn have provided immediate and future support of the Abramson Cancer Center, though both direct and legacy gifts in their estate. Their gifts help the Abramson Cancer Center continue to serve as a top destination for cancer care. Lyn is also a member of the Director's Leadership Council.

Barbara and Richard Schiffrin
Richard and Barbara have created the Richard and Barbara Schiffrin Innovative Medical Research Fund to support innovative research projects, including outstanding breast cancer research efforts by a junior investigator or assistant professor.

Richard A. Sprague, Esq.
Richard Sprague made an incredible gift to support the John H. Glick, M.D., Abramson Cancer Center Director's Professorship in honor of Dr. John H. Glick.

LASTING TRIBUTE
Over the last year, the Abramson Cancer Center has received gifts in gratitude to a few of our outstanding physicians who provide compassionate and innovative care.

Lorraine and Kenneth Algazy, M.D.
 Marcia Boraas, M.D.

Joseph Carver, M.D.
 Ara Chalian, M.D.
 Lewis Chodosh, M.D., Ph.D.
 Jeffrey Drebin, M.D.
 Kevin Fox, M.D.
 Eli Glatstein, M.D.
 John H. Glick, M.D.
 Daniel Haller, M.D. and his team
 Stephen M. Hahn, M.D.
 Larry R. Kaiser, M.D.
 Rachel Kelz, M.D.
 David McCarthy, M.D.
 James M. Metz, M.D.
 Michael Ming, M.D., M.S.C.E. and the Pigmented Lesion Group
 Sunita D. Nasta, M.D.
 Stephen Rubin, M.D. and his team
 Lynn Schuchter, M.D.
 Stephen J. Schuster, M.D.
 Joseph Serletti, M.D.
 Edward Stadtmayer, M.D.
 David Vaughn, M.D.
 Keith N. Van Arsdalen, M.D.

Gifts listed are from July 1, 2006 through June 30, 2007 unless otherwise noted. If we have omitted or misstated an acknowledgement, please let us know by calling the Abramson Cancer Center Development Office at 215-898-0578.

Liora and Menachem Sternberg
 Menachem and Liora have made an important gift to support international medical education in cancer by sponsoring a post-doctoral position for an Israeli student to study at Penn's Abramson Cancer Center.

Iliana and the late Ben Strauss
 Ben and Iliana have been strong advocates for PENN Medicine and the Abramson Cancer Center. In addition to honoring Alan Wein, M.D., and supporting a Professorship in Urology, their leadership gift to the University of Pennsylvania's number one clinical capital project, the Perelman Center for Advanced Medicine, will transform cancer care.

Mindy and Andrew Wilson
 Acknowledging the outstanding work of Doug Fraker, M.D., in this field, Andrew and Mindy made a gift to establish the Thyroid Cancer Program Fund at the Abramson Cancer Center. Dr. Fraker and Penn are nationally renowned for thyroid cancer care.

Hanna and Allen Wise
 When faced with the decision to select a cancer care provider, Maryland residents Hanna and Allen Floyd Wise chose Penn's Abramson Cancer Center based on its national reputation. Grateful for their positive experience, they have supported cancer research and made a leadership gift to the Perelman Center for Advanced Medicine.

Meryl and Charles H. Witmer
 Charles and Meryl made a remarkable gift to support pediatric neuro-oncology research with proton therapy and patient care programs by creating the Witmer Family Pediatric Neuro-Oncology Research Fund.

Janet and Stanley Zolot
 As trustees of Dr. Yetta Deitch Novotny Trust committed to Dr. Novotny's vision of supporting compassionate medical care, Stanley and Janet made a leadership gift dedicating the Mammography Center within the Perelman Center for Advanced Medicine. This gift will make leading edge breast imaging for cancer prevention and treatment more accessible for all patients.

Like every patient, every donation we receive is special and important. Honor a family member, a friend, a colleague or a loved one through a gift of hope. With a contribution of just $10 or more, your honoree will receive a personalized greeting card. Each gift provides Penn's Abramson Cancer Center with the necessary resources to provide the very best in cancer care to patients and their families.

A gift of hope is perfect for:

Anniversaries
Holiday Giving

Birthdays
Special Occasions

Graduations
Weddings

Individually, each person can make a difference; collectively, the many friends of the Abramson Cancer Center help shape the future of cancer research and patient care.

To make a gift of hope donation, please visit us online at www.pennhealth.org/Abramson and click on contributing or contact the development office at 215-898-0578.

PLANNED GIVING

Planned giving provides individuals ways to create a legacy – to make a difference in the lives of others and give back to the community while achieving personal financial goals. The Abramson Cancer Center has many planned and creative giving opportunities that enable you and your family to establish a legacy and provide hope to those whose lives are touched by cancer. If you're interested in learning more, please call 215-573-5829.

Martin Greitzer

Martin made a gift to establish the Deenie Greitzer Gastrointestinal Medical Oncology Professorship Fund to honor his late wife Dennie's memory and support the leading-edge cancer research of her esteemed physician, Dan Haller, M.D.

Marcia and Ronald Rubin

In memory of their friend Alan Steinberg, Ronald and Marcia made the extraordinary commitment to establish the Alan Steinberg Scholars in Cancer Research Fund at the Abramson Cancer Center. This gift will provide the resources necessary to fund the most deserving faculty member's new ideas to advance cancer research and will honor Alan in perpetuity.
